FIELD PROJECTS INTERNATIONAL

2027 WILDLIFE RESEARCH ASSISTANTSHIPS

Los Amigos Biological Station · Madre de Dios, Peru

Spend 5+ weeks in one of the most biodiverse places on Earth, gaining hands-on field and lab experience alongside an interdisciplinary research team. Open to undergraduate and graduate students and early-career professionals.

Primate Monitoring & Behavior

- Daily behavioral follows of wild tamarins
- Radio telemetry and a forest-wide tracking network
- Fruit and noninvasive sample collection

5 weeks · $2,950 +$590/wk

Wildlife Health: Capture-Sample-Release

- Safe capture, health assessment and sampling
- Primates, bats, birds, herps and terrestrial mammals
- Work with veterinarians and field biologists

5 weeks · $2,950 +$590/wk

Conservation Genomics 3–4 SPOTS

- Split time between forest fieldwork and a BSL-II field lab
- DNA extraction, portable sequencing and lab robotics
- Barcoding, pathogen diagnostics and genomics

6 weeks · $3,540 +$590/wk

START DATES	APPLY BY	LOCATION
May 23 or June 13	March 14, 2027	Peruvian Amazon

DETAILS & APPLICATION

fieldprojects.org/participate

Questions? info@fieldprojects.org

Scholarships Available

Local Opportunity, Global Studies & Future Black Scientists. Applications open January 2027.