Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

In order to advance scientific and conservation goals, Field Projects International (FPI) conducts tropical biology research at locations around the world. Our long-term educational programs and field courses support this mission by training the next generation of field scientists. FPI also consults for international partners in the planning and operation of field laboratories that monitor wildlife health and biodiversity.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.4a (Code:) (Expenses $200,483 including grants of $212,038) (Revenue $287,545)

Biological Research Capacity Building: Our senior scientists provide direct assistance and training in field laboratory design, staffing, acquisition of instruments and supplies, and project development and implementation in order to expand One Health research capacity for international partners in regions of high biodiversity. These in situ labs feature genetic tools, data systems, and other modern technologies for wildlife population surveillance, pathogen screening, and toxicological investigations.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $91,944 including grants of $0) (Revenue $99,048)

Field Research Training Program: Our training programs take two forms. First, we provide short intensive field courses of approximately 10-14 days in duration. Participants learn a variety of field biology research and laboratory methodologies on topics ranging from tropical biology and primatology to genomics and biodiversity monitoring. Second, we organize long-term volunteer research assistantship opportunities. These programs are 5-8 weeks in duration and consist of assisting senior scientists and veterinarians at one of our field research locations. Participants gain experience with data and sample collection and analysis relating to a diverse array of flora and fauna.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $115,578 including grants of $0) (Revenue $65,235)

Research: We conduct wildlife and environmental research projects, for scientific and conservation impacts. Our primary research programs occur in the Peruvian Amazon, where we carry out a long-term mark-recapture study of wild nonhuman primates, bats, birds, small mammals, and several other select species. Research topics range from long-term mercury bioaccumulation, animal behavior, and sensory perception to movement and feeding ecology.

4d Other program services (See Schedule O.)(Code:) (Expenses $6,685 including grants of $0) (Revenue $26,823)4e Total program service expenses $414,690

The individual proposes a compensation level to the Board of Directors. Before review, board members disclose any real or perceived conflicts of interest; those with conflicts recuse themselves. The remaining members evaluate the proposed compensation based on the organizational budget, market rates for similar roles, and costs of hiring an external candidate. Following discussion, the Board makes an offer and negotiates with the individual until an agreement is reached or alternative candidates are considered. The process and final determination are documented in the Board's biannual meeting minutes.

The completed 990 is first reviewed by the Executive Director, then sent to all board members via email, including the Treasurer. Each board member has 1 week to complete their review or to request additional review time. After 1 week AND once the Treasurer has completed their review AND if there are no outstanding requests from directors for additional review time or changes, then the 990 is submitted to the IRS.

Part and Line Number: Part VI Line 12(c)

All Board Members, associated employees, and key personnel are required to annually disclose any current or potential financial and non-financial conflicts of interest. It is the responsibility of each individual to re-declare changes that occur prior to the annual disclosure. Once the Conflict of Interest Discloser Form is completed, it is received by our independent Compliance Officer. If the Compliance Officer observes a conflict of interest, they convene a meeting of FPI's audit committee to determine the appropriate course of action and follow-up procedure. Outside of these occasions, every 2-years the Audit Committee convenes to review all disclosures that have been received for up to 2 years prior, as well as general organizational policy pertaining to COI, Confidentiality, Transparency, Discrimination and Inclusion, and Workplace Harassment.

Part and Line Number: Part VI Line 15

The individual in question provides a suggested level of compensation to the board of Directors. Prior to review, all board members are requested to declare any potential conflicts of interest relating to compensation of said person. Board members with real or perceived conflicts of interest refrain from participation for the remainder of the review process. All remaining Board Members have a live discussion of the suggested compensation in lieu of the organizational budget, the cost of hiring someone external to perform the tasks, and the level of compensation that would be received by someone of similar credentials and responsibility at a NPO of similar size and annual budget. Based on this review process, an offer is made to the individual in question and negotiation between the Board of Directors and said person continues until an agreement is reached, or it is determined that alternative candidates will be considered.

Determination of this process is documented and incorporated to the biannual meetings of the Board of Directors and associated minutes.
